SWEET INDULGENCE ART GALLERY POLICY

- The art should be installed on the day assigned to artist, in coordination with the Bakery Manager.
- The artist is responsible for hanging and removing the art. All art will be hung only within the six allowed locations within the bakery. Staff will not be available to assist artists in installation/de-installation of work.
- All materials and supplies for installation and de-installation must be provided by the artist.
- Display space must be left clean and ready for the next artist to install.
- To maintain our safe welcoming environment we require that works are non-discriminatory and non-graphic/explicit in content, at the discretion of the Bakery Manager. The art to be displayed will be appropriate for all ages.
- Sweet Indulgence reserves the right to reject art for display or ask that art be removed.
- Sweet Indulgence is not responsible for theft or damage to the art display.
- Artists may apply for a group show. Please include this information on the application form.
